Why not further your fitness quotient while seeing the sights by biking your way around the Twin Cities, which boast an extensive and gorgeous bike-path system. Pick up rental at Nice Ride—there are stations throughout the city—and pedal around the lakes, the banks of the Mississippi, Fort Snelling, Crosby Farms, the Capital, and the western suburbs without leaving a designated bike lane. You'll truly gain a new perspective of or a renewed appreciation for the city from the seat depending upon whether you've ever been to the Twin Cities or not.
